Such committee shall be headed by a woman and action taken on the report/recommendation of the committee shall be minuted separately and report to be submitted to the Management.

41. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

a. Any employee found guilty of any misconduct may be punished by awarding any of the following penalties after taking into consideration the gravity of the case:

1. Dismissal from service, which shall ordinarily be a disqualification for future employment.
2. Discharge/removal from service, which shall not be a disqualification for future employment.
3. Suspension from service for a period not exceeding four days without salary and allowances.

4. Reduction to a lower grade or post or a lower stage in a time scale.
5. Stoppage of one or more increments with or without cumulative effect.
6. Censure or Warning
7. Have an adverse remark entered against him/her in his/her personal file/service register.
8. Withholding promotion.
9. Fine or recovery from pay or such other amount as may be due from him/her as whole or part of the pecuniary loss caused to the institution/management by negligence or breach of orders.

Explanation: For the purpose of this provision, the following shall not amount to penalty within the meaning of this rule:

1. Non-promotion, whether in a substantive or officiating capacity of an employee after consideration of his case to a grade or post for promotion to which he is eligible.
2. Compulsory retirement of an employee in accordance with the provision relating to his superannuation or retirement.

3. Termination of service,
 - i. of an employee appointed on purely temporary basis for a specified period of time
 - ii. of a part-time employee appointed for a specified period of time
 - iii. of a person appointed under an agreement or contract in accordance with the terms of such agreement or contract.

4. Retrenchment of an employee

- b. The Board of Trustees, the President, the Secretary, Head of the institution or any such other person empowered and vested with the authority of suspending, initiating disciplinary action and awarding any of the penalties stipulated in these regulations are notified and designated as disciplinary authorities in respect of the institution.
- c. The punishment will be imposed only after giving reasonable opportunity to the employee to defend oneself by submitting an explanation either orally or in writing. Punishments under rule 41 (a) - 1 and 2 will be imposed only after conducting an impartial enquiry.

42. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- a. An employee alleged of serious misconduct and against whom disciplinary action is proposed to be taken shall be given a charge-sheet by the management, clearly setting out therein the circumstances and facts relating to the misconduct alleged, affording him opportunity to submit explanation in writing, if any, within 7 days of receipt of the said charge-sheet.
- b. Such employee shall also be given an opportunity to answer the charges at the time of an enquiry before an enquiry officer to be appointed by the management, the date and time of enquiry being fixed with sufficient notice to the employee concerned to prepare, explain or to produce any evidence he/she wishes to rely upon in his/her defence at the enquiry.
- c. Any notice, order, charge-sheet or communication meant for the charge-sheeted employee shall be in English or Kannada. In case of an absentee employee, notice or any communication shall be sent to himself/herself by "Registered Post with Acknowledgement Due" to his/her last known address. If the employee concerned refuses to accept any communication in connection with any disciplinary process when it is sought to be served on him/her, exhibition of such communication in a notice board of the institution shall be deemed as sufficient service of the same to him/her.

- d. If the employee concerned fails to appear before the Enquiry Officer at the appointed time and place without sufficient cause for his/her absence to the satisfaction of the Enquiry Officer, then the enquiry is liable to be held ex-parte.
- e. During the enquiry, the employee shall be permitted to produce records, examine witnesses in his/her defence, peruse records produced in support of the allegations into and cross-examine witnesses examined against him/her.
- f. The employee may be permitted to be assisted by his/her co-employee during enquiry, if he/she so desires in writing. But the employee shall not be permitted to take assistance from any legal practitioner.
- g. If the employee makes in writing a voluntary and unconditional admission of his/her guilt regarding the charges at any stage of the disciplinary proceedings, no further enquiry would be necessary to be held or continued.

- h. When the misconduct alleged is of serious nature, the management may suspend the employee from duty pending disciplinary proceedings. During such period of suspension, the employee concerned shall not leave the station except with the written permission of the management.
- i. Where disciplinary proceeding against an employee is contemplated or is pending or where a case against an employee in respect of any criminal offense is under police investigation or court trial, and the employer is satisfied that it is necessary to place the employee under suspension, he may, by order in writing, suspend him with effect from such date as mentioned in the order.
- j. An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked by the authority to do so.
- k. If an employee is kept under suspension pending enquiry of the case, such employee shall be paid subsistence allowance as follows:
 - i. Subsistence allowance equal to 50% of the salary (basic pay and dearness allowance) drawn immediately prior to the date of suspension, for the first 6 months after the date of suspension provided that where the period of suspension exceeds 6 months, the authority made or deemed to have made the order of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence allowance for any period subsequent to the period of first 6 months as follows:

- ii. The amount of subsistence allowance may be increased to an amount equal to 75% of the pay drawn immediately prior to the date of suspension, if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the employee;
- iii. The amount of subsistence allowance to be reduced to 25% if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to reasons to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the employee.
- I. If on conclusion of the enquiry, the employee has been found guilty of the charges framed against him/her and it is considered, after giving the employee concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed, that an order of dismissal or discharge or suspension or fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank would meet the ends of justice, the employer shall pass an order accordingly.

- m. In case the order of dismissal or discharge is issued to an employee, he shall be deemed to have been absent for duty during the period of suspension and shall not be entitled for salary for such period, but the subsistence allowance paid to him shall not be recovered.
- n. If the employee is imposed a penalty other than dismissal or discharge from service, the employee shall be paid for the period of suspension such proportion of his pay and allowances as the said authority in its discretion specify and where no such proportion is specified, the employee shall be entitled to subsistence allowance as admissible and the period of suspension shall count as duty unless the said authority has otherwise directed.
- o. If on conclusion of the enquiry, the employee has been found to be not guilty of any of the charges framed against him/her, he/she shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same salary as he/she would have received if he/she had not been under suspension, after deducting subsistence allowance paid to him/her for such period.

- p. The payment of subsistence allowance under this standing order shall be subject to the employee concerned not taking up any employment during the period of suspension. While claiming subsistence allowance, the employee concerned shall certify in writing that he/she is not gainfully employed elsewhere during the period of suspension.
- q. In awarding punishment under these rules, the management shall take into account the gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any of the employee and other extenuating or aggravating circumstances that may exist. A copy of the order passed by the management shall be supplied to the employee concerned.

43. REDRESS OF EMPLOYEES AGAINST UNFAIR TREATMENT
