ALUMNI SPEAK

Dr. Pranav Pradeep Kumar,
Postdoctoral Researcher, Texas
A&M Transportation Institute,
Bryan, TX, USA, Civil
Engineering, Sir MVIT
[Batch 2012-2016]

I was very excited and slightly nervous to start my first step in Civil Engineering at Sir MVIT. I was filled with hope and wonder, and I did not know what to expect from this journey as a first year student, coming straight out of the competitive exam rat race. I am so pleased to note that at the end of my four-year journey of undergraduate, I earned way more than what I was promised. I earned way more than a degree. I had heard many times that the journey matters more than the destination, but I truly felt that come true after I joined Sir MVIT. Sir MVIT provided me with a platform to grow, not just technically but also as a professional and as a person. The opportunities provided by the college to conduct fests and events within the college taught me how to be interactive, entrepreneurial and managerial.

The mentorship from Prof. K.V.R. Prasad, Prof. Ravi Kumar H., Prof. Shivanna S., Prof. Mahendra Babu, Prof. Pradeepa S., and Prof. Anitha J. has been pivotal in shaping my academic career. The college supported me in my endeavors to travel to IIT, BITS, VIT, and CSIR-SERC for participating in national-level competitions and workshops. The group of friends I made while at Sir MVIT also brought out the best in me. Some of the funniest anecdotes of my life remain to be from my bachelor's days, even after almost a decade. The final year project was instrumental in making me learn the importance of resourcefulness and preparing me to get funds to conduct research. This later turned out to be a great experience for my career in academia. I am also grateful to the Civil Engineering faculty for supporting my interest in publishing research work. It was the support from the college, Civil Engineering faculty, and friends that I was able to secure 12 gold medals at the university convocation. I am very happy to be an alumnus of this institute. The continued association with Sir MVIT as a mentee and mentor is something that I will always cherish.--Pranav Pradeep Kumar

The first thing that springs to mind when I think back on my four years at Sir MVIT is a full "transformation". I can attest to the fact that the abilities instilled in me by the institution provided the solid groundwork for a protracted and demanding professional path ahead. All students' personalities were shaped through a variety of forums, industry visits, conferences, student development programs, and summer break workshops, in addition to the exceptionally broad and effective curriculum delivery guided by incredibly passionate and experienced professors. I will always be grateful to the Institute for turning me around in four years from a naive school dropout to a self-assured person. Being away from family for the first time, the entire ecosystem in the Institute supported us to navigate through both personal and academic challenges. I remember the personal attention which was given to each of us made us felt home. Sir MVIT must be proud as an Institution for so many lives, it has touched and transformed, thank you for all that you do!----Vibhor Mathur
