Alumni Speak

Manish Burman (2008 Graduated Batch, BT)
Deployment Lead - Huma London, UK

During my time at Sir M. Visvesvaraya Institute of Technology (Sir MVIT) from 2004 to 2008, pursuing my Bachelor of Engineering, I experienced a transformative journey that has shaped me in profound ways. The friendships I cultivated at Sir MVIT have been one of the highlights of my college experience. From day one in the hostel, I found myself surrounded by a community of like-minded individuals, all driven to excel in their respective fields. Collaborating with my friends on projects, engaging in thought-provoking discussions, and supporting each other through personal and academic challenges, we formed a network of support and inspiration that continues to enrich my life even today. Beyond academic excellence, Sir MVIT places great emphasis on holistic growth. The carefully curated curriculum provided opportunities to explore my interests, develop leadership skills, and enhance my communication and teamwork abilities. Whether it was participating in student clubs, organising events, or representing the college in various competitions, these extracurricular activities instilled valuable lessons in time management, adaptability, and effective collaboration. Under the guidance of the dedicated faculty members, my education at Sir MVIT extended far beyond the confines of the classroom. The professors not only imparted knowledge but also fostered critical thinking and a passion for research. I am immensely grateful to the faculty members of the Department of Biotechnology, particularly the Head of the Department, for their unwavering dedication to our growth. Their expertise, guidance, and encouragement have moulded me into a confident and capable individual, ready to tackle the challenges that lie ahead. Their mentorship extended beyond academic realms, and I hold deep appreciation for the countless hours they invested in shaping our futures. My journey at Sir MVIT has been transformative, leaving an indelible mark on my life. The lasting friendships forged, coupled with the personal and professional skills acquired, have laid a solid foundation for my future endeavours. I take immense pride in being a part of this esteemed institution and will forever treasure the memories and lessons learned during my time at Sir M. Visvesvaraya Institute of Technology.

Rajarshi Chatterjee
(2002 Graduated Batch, ETE)
Senior Manager at Deloitte Consulting,
Los Angeles, USA

I joined Sir MVIT in Telecommunications Engineering branch in the year 1998 and finished my undergraduate degree in 2002. Its been more than 20 years since I left, but it feels like just yesterday. I still remember the day I stepped into the campus with my Dad to see it for the first time and I was already in awe. Back then, there were not as many buildings, so the only thing I could see were the shop with the telephone booth, first year Men's hostel, Mechanical and Civil Engineering buildings. I was quite impressed by the stone buildings, the well maintained gardens, the playgrounds and the wide space inside the 130 acre campus. In the 4 years, I made friends for life with whom I shared many memorable moments in the hostel, college classrooms and times when we visited places outside campus. While we had so much fun with friends, I remember we were quite serious about doing well in studies. I still remember in my first semester when I scored full marks in the Maths internal test, my professor gifted me a Maths book with his appreciation note in it. It not only made me a bit popular in my class, but provided huge encouragement to do well in future. Initially it took some time to get to know my teachers, but once I did, I realized how much invested they were in my success. Our interactions outside classrooms helped me think about my career beyond the 4 years of engineering. I remember the preparation for Kalanjali college fest where the students and teachers worked hand in hand to make it bigger and better each year. Its truly impossible to compile all the memories of college days in a few words. These are treasures that I am going to share with my MVIT friends and teachers for the rest of my life.

I think the success of any school can be measured by the contribution the alumni make to our national life.
