Overall Report:

A workshop on “Entrepreneurship skill, Attitude and Behavior Development” was held on 17.01.2023. There were 125 registered student participants.

The speaker for this workshop is Dr. PRATIMA KHANDELWAL, FOUNDER, AT “FLYHIGH” (EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE SERVICES) BANGALORE.

Dr. PRATIMA KHANDELWAL spoke about Innovative Thinking that brings entrepreneurial opportunities as Innovation is a combination of creativity and its implementation. Also discussed Education 4.0 which is linked with Industry 4.0 and NEP 2020. She clarified that the ability to respond and adapt to disruptions while maintaining important operations and safeguarding resources. The speaker shared her own experiences in the process of improving entrepreneurship skills. She insisted all the students have 21st-century skills like critical thinking, citizenship, growth mindset, Communication, Creativity, and Collaboration. To upskill, the hidden constant factor is YOUR ATTITUDE that to POSITIVE ATTITUDE. And also she clarified that Attitude is a combination of Approach (through thoughts and feelings), Outlook (Behavior) and Genes, ,Culture and upbringing. Behavior relates to the actual expression of feelings, action or inaction orally or/and through body language. Speaker explained different levels of Entrepreneurial Culture like Invisible level, Semi-visible level and Visible level.

At the end of the session, an interactive quiz was conducted in different modes and platforms. Students showed a lot of interest to attend the questions and winners were awarded prizes.

The session also had an interactive question and answer session.
